@pook_rosiee @KathEvans2 @_Common_Room @jo__reid @RBMefirst @maura_neilson @LucyAlexandria @1985Deanne @Jem8239 @JWRTalks @AmyFeltham Really good advice. But I also think it's very difficult for parents & CYPs to feel comfortable to choose more information if they haven't had a good experience of this. It can be worrying & daunting for all but if done well it can be very helpful and help transition #CYPMeFirst

@pook_rosiee @CYPMeFirst @AmyFeltham @_Common_Room @jo__reid @RBMefirst @maura_neilson @KathEvans2 @1985Deanne @KirstW_94 It sounds like it was tough for both of you - hard to accept for your mum & feeling different for you. @1985Deanne @_Common_Room @jo__reid @KathEvans2 @RBMefirst @maura_neilson @LucyAlexandria @Jem8239 @JWRTalks @AmyFeltham Yes these complexities can make the situation more challenging & emotive for all. Gd communication can help relieve anxiety & improve understanding for CYPs, parents & professionals. It's not easy but education & awareness absolutely help! That's what we aim to achieve! #CYPMeFirst

@pook_rosiee @_Common_Room @jo__reid @KathEvans2 @RBMefirst @maura_neilson @LucyAlexandria @1985Deanne @Jem8239 @JWRTalks @AmyFeltham It's important to find the right balance which can be tricky to find -this also relies on good communication! Thanks for your contributions tonight -really interesting and useful. #CYPMeFirst
